Subject: A lobbying Contract.

Dear Mr. Valis,

As a follow up to our initial contact meeting of last October in your Washington D.C. Office on the above subject, and given the high importance of the issues at stake, it is my pleasure to inform you that the Government of Cameroon is willing to further discussions with your firm in view of a formal lobbying contract for an initial period of twelve months.

The terms of reference we propose for such a contract could be as follows :

1. Strategic Counsel and Government Relations. Among the specific tasks we envisage for your firm to carry out are the following - identification of high level political and corporate decision makers in Congress and in the Executive Branch to serve as Champions for Cameroon; identification of and lobbying for major policy initiatives and decisions in Congress and in the Executive branch to favour Cameroon; influencing U.S. Think Tanks and other civil society groups to focus favourable attention on Cameroon; liaising high level Cameroon officials with their U.S. counterparts and advising Cameroon officials of strategies and about policy positions at the levels of Congress, the White House and the Executive Departments.

2. Organization of visits of your officials for research and/or travel purposes.

The total cost of such a contract should be all inclusive of your needs to carry out task 1, 2 and 3 within the 12 months period of the contract.

While looking forward to hearing from you with regard to the above, please, accept our distinguished regards.

Yours Sincerely,

Prof. Pierre MOUKOKO MBONGO
